Introduction: Department of Sociology, Arts & Commerce College, Kadepur organizes a speech under the MoU Faculty Exchange Activity, on 'Cyber Crime and Youth'. In the digital age, children are exposed to a vast amount of technology and the internet, making them vulnerable to cybercrime. Cybercrime includes bullying, harassment, identity theft, fraud, and other online dangers that can harm children's mental and emotional health. As our youth is mostly using computer and Internet and are mostly involved in cybercrimes so they are mostly affected by these crimes. They are affecting personally, socially/culturally and economically. Through this lecture students will realize the benefits of internet and awareness about cyber-crime.

Welcome - Chief Guest Dr. Dayavati Padalkar

Dr. Dayavati Padalkar explains the different types of cyber-crimes with some recent examples and their effects on youth.

Chair Person Mr. Dattatray Honmane, gives his opinion about cyber-crime.

Outcomes :

Some important tips for students - Avoid using friend's phone, public computer, cyber cafe or free Wi-Fi for sensitive browsing as data can be stolen or copied. Be cyber aware- Make aware about potential online threats such as grooming, bullying, and stalking, keep track of their online activities. Students realized advantages and disadvantages of the internet awareness about cyber-crime.
