Subject: Report on Mentor-Mentee Discussion on April 1, 2023

The Mentor-Mentee Discussion was organized by the Department of Microbiology on Monday, 1st April 2023. The activity aimed to provide a platform for students to interact with their mentor, Mr. J.V. Kuwar, and discuss various challenges they were facing in their academic and personal lives. The session was attended by a total of 13 participants, including the mentor and the mentees.

The primary objective of the program was to address the concerns of the students and provide guidance and support to help them overcome their challenges. The mentor, Mr. J.V. Kuwar, is an experienced faculty member with expertise in the field of Microbiology. His role was to facilitate the discussion, offer advice, and provide guidance based on his knowledge and experience.

The mentor-mentee discussion covered various topics, including attendance and time management, academic performance, stress management, goal setting and career guidance, as well as communication and interpersonal skills. Each participant had the opportunity to express their concerns and seek guidance from Mr. J.V. Kuwar. The discussion was conducted in a respectful and supportive environment, encouraging open dialogue and active participation from all attendees.

The mentor emphasized the importance of discipline, effective time management, and seeking help when needed. He provided strategies and practical tips to improve attendance, academic performance, and stress management. Furthermore, the discussion focused on helping the students set achievable goals, explore career paths, and develop their communication and interpersonal skills.

The program consisted of a combination of interactive discussions, and individualized guidance. The mentor encouraged the students to actively participate, ask questions, and share their experiences with their peers.

Overall, the Mentor-Mentee Discussion program conducted on Monday, 1st April 2023, provided a valuable platform for students to engage with their mentor, Mr. J.V. Kuwar, and address their concerns. The program aimed to enhance the academic and personal development of the students and provide them with the necessary guidance and support. The feedback received from the participants was positive, indicating that the session was insightful and beneficial for their growth.

The Department of Microbiology plans to continue organizing such mentor-mentee discussions in the future to ensure ongoing support and guidance for the students.
