Introduction :

Save girl child is one of the most important issue in India. This campaign was started as a concern over the declining sex ratio of the girl child. The problem is not just of a single state but it has become a problem of whole nation. Save girl child is a campaign where the government along with different trusts, societies and non-government organizations are spreading awareness among masses against female foeticide. So it needs to understand the problem and also the reality.

Objectives:

1. To know the sex ratio of the girl child.
2. To understand the save girl campaign.
3. To know the violence against women regarding this issue.
4. To create awareness about the save girl child amongst the students.
5. To create the awareness regarding the self-protection.

Welcome and Introduction by Dr. Dayavati Padalkar, Convener of Beti Bachao Abhiyan

Chief Guest, Dr. Savita Mohite explains her opinion about female foeticide .Give some suggestions about the self-security, protection against violence.

Chief Guest, Dr. Savita Mohite and lots of our students ...

Outcomes:

1. To stop violence gender equality is very essential.
2. It helps in creating an equal right for a girl child and promote her education.
3. This scheme helps to challenge the stereotype thinking of men prevailing in society.
4. Girls always remember that they need to stand firm against growing atrocities.

Introduction :

Traditionally, Rangoli is an art of decoration drawn on the floor or the entrances of homes. It is thought to bring good luck, prosperity on the house and in the family, and to welcome guests. Some mothers in India do this activity every morning, or on a special festive occasion like Diwali, Onam, and Pongal.

The rangoli represents the happiness, positivity and liveliness of a household, and is intended to welcome Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth and good luck. Rangoli design is a safe, beautiful and expressive tool that can bring people together to work towards a common creative goal, transcending age, language or cultural barriers.
