- Title of the activity: Competitive Examination Guidance
- Organizing Departments: Department of Microbiology and Career Guidance, Counseling & Placement Cell
- Number of Participants: 61
- Duration of the program: 2 hours
- Day and Date: 23rd November 2022
- Venue: Conference Hall

Introduction:

The Competitive Examination Guidance program was jointly organized by the Department of Microbiology and the Career Guidance, Counseling & Placement Cell. The program aimed to motivate and generate interest among undergraduate students regarding various competitive examinations. It provided valuable information about competitive exams and inspired students to prepare for them.

Program Description:

The program took place in the Conference Hall and lasted for a duration of 2 hours. It was attended by 61 participants, including undergraduate students from various disciplines. The session began with a warm welcome and introduction by Prof. Dr. Sanjay Pore, the Convener & IQAC Co-Ordinator. He emphasized the importance of career guidance and the significance of competitive examination preparation.

Mrs. Shubhangi Patil, the Deputy CEO of Zilha Parishad, Buldhana, served as the resource person for the session. With her in-depth knowledge and experience, she delivered a comprehensive presentation on competitive examinations. Mrs. Patil covered different types of exams, their eligibility criteria, and the necessary preparations. She shared her personal experiences and success stories to inspire and motivate the students.

The session encouraged interactive discussions, allowing participants to ask questions and seek clarifications. Mrs. Patil patiently addressed each query and provided valuable guidance, encouraging students to take the necessary steps towards preparing for competitive examinations. The interactive nature of the program fostered engagement and active participation among the attendees.

Outcomes of the Workshop:

The Competitive Examination Guidance workshop had several positive outcomes for the participants. These outcomes included:

- Increased awareness: Students gained valuable information about different competitive examinations through the workshop. They became aware of the various types of exams, their eligibility criteria, and the preparation required. This knowledge empowered them to make informed decisions about which exams to target based on their interests and career goals.
- Motivation and inspiration: The workshop served as a source of motivation for the students. Mrs. Shubhangi Patil's presentation and her personal success stories inspired the participants to work towards their career goals during their educational journey. The session encouraged students to strive for excellence and take proactive steps to achieve their aspirations.
- Goal setting: By understanding the opportunities available through competitive examinations, students were able to set clear targets for themselves. The workshop helped them identify the exams that align with their career interests and aspirations. Armed with this knowledge, students were better equipped to plan their academic and career paths accordingly.
- Overall, the workshop had a significant impact on the participants. It provided them with valuable information, motivation, and a sense of direction. The outcomes of the workshop included increased awareness of competitive examinations, student motivation towards their careers, and the ability to set clear goals based on the opportunities available. These outcomes are crucial for students as they navigate their educational and professional journeys.

Conclusion:

The Competitive Examination Guidance program organized by the Department of Microbiology and the Career Guidance, Counseling & Placement Cell was highly informative and motivating for the undergraduate students. Mrs. Shubhangi Patil, as the resource person, provided valuable insights and guidance on various aspects of competitive examinations. The event successfully achieved its objectives of inspiring students to prepare for competitive exams and creating a platform for knowledge-sharing and discussion on career guidance.

The support and presence of Prof. Dr. V.Y. Kadam, the I/C Principal, Prof. Dr. Sanjay Pore, Mr. Sudhirkumar Shinde, and Mr. Joy V. Kuwar were instrumental in the success of the program. Their collective efforts ensured a fruitful and beneficial session for the students, equipping them with the necessary guidance to excel in competitive examinations. The event served as a stepping stone for the participants, motivating them to pursue their goals with determination and confidence.
